“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Carol's untimely death. I first met Carol in the Bain Cooperative, where she was a very active member, particularly involved with the Co-op's excellent newsletter for a number of years. She later moved to the Jones/Danforth area in Toronto (The Pocket)- where we shortly became neighbours again when I moved there too. Carol and Bob later moved to Warkworth. She was a delightful person in every way! So sorry for your loss Bob.

“ I am so sad to hear this news! I met Carol some 30 odd years ago at the University of Toronto. We managed to stay in each other's lives even after I moved to Alberta some decades ago. I will miss her gentle humor, her take on political events, and her updates on family life. Condolances to her partner Bob.

“ My heart is broken. The loss of this wonderful woman has devastated me. She has been a dear friend for thirty plus years. Sharing, Christmas, Birthdays and numerous occasions along with regular lunches she was a light in my life. With her kindness, compassion and her courage to stand up for what she believed in, walking in protests no matter the weather. She always knew who she was, living in the present a simple life surrounded by those she loved and who loved her in return. She will live on, held in my heart with all the warm memories that I have. Bob I am so very sorry for the loss of your wonderful a very special partner. The love she gave will live on in all the hearts she touched. Mary
