BEARD-EARLES, Carole

It is with great sadness, we announce the peaceful passing of Carole Beard-Earles (Drummond) on May 5, 2021, at PRHC Palliative Care Unit, in her 81st year. Beloved wife of Gerald (Jerry) Earles and the late Ronald Beard (2004). Loving mother of Stewart (Debbie), Steven (Judy), Dan (Rhonda). Amazing, proud Grandma to Greg (Brittney), Brian (Cori), Amanda Beacock (Travis) and Kaitlyn. Devoted GG to Liam, Shannon and Evelyn. Cherished Stepmom and Grandma to Janette (Rick) Babcock, Jay (Kim) Earles, Jolene (Eric) Jenkins and their children. Predeceased by her parents Thelma (Hatton) and Duncan Drummond, her siblings, Betty (Doug) Denniss, Don and Carl Drummond. Dearly missed by her sister-in-law Sylvia Drummond and Karin Drummond. Lovingly remembered by her nieces, nephew and cousins. She will be sadly missed by many dear friends here and in South Carolina. Carole was a highly revered hairdresser for 52 years, then retired and enjoyed travelling and cruising to many parts of the world. We send heartfelt thanks on behalf of Carole and our family for the care and compassion shown by the staff at PRHC – Cancer Care, B4 and the Palliative Care Unit. We will always remember the kindness and friendship of Father David West. Cremation has taken place and there will be a private family service. In lieu of flowers, an expression of sympathy to the PRHC Foundation or a charity of your choice, would be appreciated by the family. Online condolences may be left at

Poem

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me – by David Romano

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand

That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready, in heaven far above

And that I would have to leave behind, all those I dearly love

But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home

When God looked down and smiled at me, and told me "Welcome Home"

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart

For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart

“ I wish to extend my condolences to Carole's sons and to her husband Gerry. I will always remember Carole as a vibrant and engaged human being, who embraced the each day with a full heart and who gave to others as much as she got. Truly a very kind soul, and those whom she touched should consider themselves to be blessed. Another rose now grows in the gardens of heaven!

“ Dear Jerry and family, how sad Phil and I were to hear of Carole's passing. She was one of my favourite people in this world. Whenever we were in Peterborough, I always told Phil we needed to see Carole because I knew we would be laughing in mere moments of arriving at her house. Jerry, you graciously hosted us at your home in South Carolina and true to Carole's form, it was an evening of laughter and stories. We loved having you take the time to visit us at our home. Truly, truly saddened and our hearts and prayers to you all. Phil & Wendy Hatton
