“ What a beautiful photo this is of our sweet dear Carol!!! this is how I first met you and that smile was so big that you grabbed my heart and the kids too and never let go of it. Your laugh and teasing to Ed sealed it for us and we became a family all of us together in my kitchen and brought so much joy and fun into our lives. You were so endearing and loving. Your hugs and love warmed our heart every time we saw you with Ed at my house. your eyes would light up when I made you coffee and gave you a sugar fix with your favorite sweets. I loved doing that for you at my house and endeared yourself to me in so so many ways. Your smile brought back so many memories of my Aunt Mabel and the two of them could have passed for twins which was easy to love Carol as she was so much like her that you became an instant Aunt to me and my kids the first time we met you at my house and the bond we shared will never be broken. You were a fighter Carol and you fought the odds and won as far as I am concerned with the Covid and we hugged and kissed each other in my house like it wasn't there at all. for all of us you were just our sweet dear Carol our beloved Aunt and no disease you had mattered to us as we didn't see it in you when you were with us as it didn't exist for us. we just adored and loved you for the wonderful woman you were and will always be for us. you will be missed dreadfully but we smile as we remember the smile and laugh you had with us and that will hold us until we see you again in heaven. you earned your angel wings sweetie and we know you are watching over all of us from heaven. God didn't want to wait to hold you in His arms but wanted you home with Him. you are His child and you are loved deeply by Him and all still here. your love was full for everyone you were around and you loved well while you were with us and still feel it. we will always feel your love as you were the sunshine on a nice day, you were the warm gentle rains when it fell to the earth and candle that will always burn bright for us all. you lit up a room with your smile, love and warmth and you gave us memories to cherish forever until we meet again. Rest now our sweet angel Carol for you deserve it and though our tears will fall greatly as we miss you and try to move on with life without you which will be hard and painful but you are never forgotten ever or ever will be. we love you (Aunt) Carol and yes we adopted you the day we met you so I am going to call you Aunt Carol as that is what you will always be to us forever. love and miss you so much already and the pain of losing you is great! Don't you worry about Ed, Rick and Robin as we will always watch over them for you as they are our adopted family too and always will be and I know you are watching down over all of us. God bless you and thank you for all the beautiful memories you gave us while you were here with us. Rest in peace Carol and when I get to heaven I will bring you your sweets as always I promise you that!!! hugs and kisses always from Michelle, Cassie and Matthew (Perry)
