Charles "Bev" Redden

Dec 24, 1941-May 31, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of a truly one-of-a-kind man, a beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He was a genuinely easy-going and multi-talented individual who left an indelible mark on everyone he met, and he leaves behind a huge hole in our world.

A business visionary with a relentless curiosity, he started Reddens TV in Campbellford as a service man before moving into sales. He always had his finger on the pulse of the future, pioneering the local cable TV business, opening the first video rental shop, and introducing satellite dishes and one-hour photo processing to the community.

Beyond his entrepreneurial spirit, he was a man of many passions. He possessed a legendary green thumb, a beautifully equipped basement woodworking shop that produced countless stunning turned pieces, and a gift for playing the 10-finger banjo. Luckily, despite all his time with power tools, he managed to keep all ten of those fingers.

His famous words, "I'll grow up someday," perfectly captured his lifelong love of gadgets, creations, and tinkering. That quick wit and signature sense of humor stayed with him right until the very end.

He is reunited with his beloved wife, the late Anne, and his parents, CL and Inez Redden.

He will be deeply missed by his children, Cathy (Markus), Steve (Kim), and Craig; his brother, Brian; and his sister-in-law and dear friend, Janet. His legacy lives on through his granddaughters, Ryan (Justin), Michel (Chris), Portia, Dyllan, Kelly (Adam) as well as his great-grandchildren, Levi, Sydney, Casey, Theo, Beau and Della.

If desired, memorial donations in Bev's memory may be made to The Bridge Hospice in Warkworth. At Bev's request there will be no service.

I recall being at the TV shop one night waiting for my then girlfriend ( later to become my wife) to end her Friday evening shift running the photo developer, renting videos when Bev came over and started explaining that he had always wanted to work for Walt Disney ,he was fascinated with the job description of "Imagineer", he told me he wanted to be an imagineer one day, perhaps he and Walt can strike up a deal now...
