

Cynthia McEwan (Morden)

December 29, 1975 - October 25, 2020

Cynthia McEwan passed peacefully at Hospice Peterborough on Sunday, October 25th after a short battle with brain cancer. Friends and family were privileged to be by her side, as she praised Christ to the end.

A walkthrough CELEBRATION of life will take place Sunday, November 1st, from 9am to 4pm, at The Keene Centre for the Arts. Photos with video running will be inside (10 people max on each of 2 floors) and video outside (limit to gathering of 25 people). Physical distance, bring your best celebration clothes, and decorated masks!

12 First Street in Keene
(NE corner of Heritage Line and First Street)

Consider the following for your donations:

1. Go out for dinner or to an activity. Play a game. Give your time and resources to your family! And tell me about it!

2. Hospice Peterborough

<https://www.hospicepeterborough.org/donate/>

3. Kingston General Hospital

<https://www.uhkf.ca/Home>

4. Sick Kids in Toronto

<https://www.sickkidsfoundation.com/>

5. Living Hope Church in Peterborough

<https://www.livinghope.on.ca/how-to-give/>

Tribute Wall

LK

“ Dear Glenda and Doug and family, We were shocked and saddened this evening to learn of your dear daughter Cynthia's passing, through a mutual friend. We wish to extend our deepest condolences to everyone she was close to. You are in our thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time.

Laurie and Joe Kolesnikowicz - November 01, 2020 at 11:31 PM

WC

“ Please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of Cynthia, Bill and Judy Conners

WILLIAM CONNERS - October 27, 2020 at 12:56 PM

JE

“ I've known Cynthia for 25ish years. We would go long times without seeing or talking, but I always knew I had a supporter in her. I thank God for Cynthia as my friend. Cynthia was loving, giving, and a great person. I can look around my house and see touches of Cynthia, and I smile. Thank you Cynthia for being a friend. Enjoy your reward!

Jen - October 27, 2020 at 10:54 AM