

Daniel Pinkerton

April 9, 1967 - June 26, 2024

PINKERTON, Daniel

Danny Boy the pipes are calling... Dan Pinkerton passed away June 26, 2024. Dan leaves behind his wife of almost 18 years, MaryBeth, their blended 5 children, Danielle Pinkerton, Laura Durham (Nik), Cody Dewan, Kyle Miller (deceased), and Brooke Miller; 7 grandchildren, Jasmyn, Eva, Dante, Tyberious, Una, Mercy Joy, and Roan, as well as those kids that came and never left... you know who you are! Parents, Mom-Joy (deceased) Frank McMartin, Dad-Del and Marilyn Pinkerton, In-laws-Paul and Beth Dewan. Siblings, his brother, Ron Pinkerton can now continue to lie about the "arrow incident" of 1977, his wife Allie, sisters, Kally Mills (deceased), and Crystal Mills.

Dans family was his greatest love and frustration, including his work family at Accuracy Plus, who if pressed could probably find something positive to say about him. Dan never had a quick chat about anything, especially when it was about guns, reloading, hunting or fishing. He was a consummate outdoorsman. Dan was also the leftover king and could make something new out of whatever was in the fridge, notably, noodle-caboodle, Mexican pizza and many other concoctions that remain unnamed. Dan never met a food he couldn't fry or a fried food he didn't love.

MaryBeth will miss “just one more time around the lake” that always turned into 5-6 times. Their screaming matches over his hoarding, sorry collecting! And his camo for every season and occasion. Dan will be missed by everyone listed and many more.

Tribute Wall

GE

“ MB, know that you ALL are in my prayers

Gale Elly - June 28, 2024 at 07:33 PM

BC

“ I remember when you first started dating when we worked together at King George, he was an awesome guy for sure. My sincere condolences to Mary-Beth and all your family as well as his best friend Todd Foster

Brad Chambo - June 28, 2024 at 03:24 PM