“ Danco was the best friend you could ever as for. Kind, adorably curmudgeonly, straight shooter...straight from the heart. We will forever be in his debt for all the glorious advice and true craftsmanship, and HEART, he put into building our home. “ I will always be indebted to my brother Dan for helping me transition to a new life in Niagara Falls from Timmins ont. where I was just wasting away. He provided me with employment and a place to live while I transitioned. It was in his household that pieces came together for me to meet and marry my lifemate Debbie. so, thanks brother Dan. for your huge heart and your eternally optimistic attitude. With my love.
