“ Dave & I went to old RH King Collegiate & I remember vividly him playing sax in my band on the old stage at that high school. But most memorable, was our trip to Atlantic City as elementary school kids with a Canadian choir. As we walked through the streets of Philadelphia to make a train connection, Dave & I sang the pop hits of the 50's in harmony to amuse ourselves, an unforgettable memory. Dave's dad Gerry was also instrumental in encouraging me to continue playing baseball that became a lifelong passion. I briefly reconnected with Dave a no. of years ago via Facebook before that became impossible. It was great to find out that Dave was successful as a music teacher at Humber as I became a Chemistry teacher myself here in B.C. Condolences to his wife children & grandchildren. Sincerely, Jack Stevenson

“ Right from the first time I met Dave, I thought he was so cool. And he treated me as an adult and I believe I became a little bit cool by association! But it was his gentleness and inclusiveness, his protectiveness that made me love him and be so happy for my sister, Debra, as it was so apparent of how much he loved and cherished her.
