“When we give up our bodies as a place to live, we move into people’s hearts as a permanent place to dwell.”

Death is nothing at all I have only slipped away into the next room I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other That we still are

Call me by my old familiar name speak to me in the easy way which you always used Put no difference in your tone Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we always enjoyed together Play, smile, think of me, pray for me Let my name be ever the household word that it always was Let it be spoken without effect without the ghost of a shadow on it

Life means all that it ever meant It is the same as it ever was there is absolutely unbroken continuity What is death but a negligible accident?

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you at an interval somewhere very near just around the corner

All is well"

Henry Scott Holland 1847-1918 Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral

“ I'll always think of Detlev as a man who faced the challenges life threw at him with courage and strength. His love for his family was deep and his varied talents were well used. A full and rich life. A big hug to all who are missing him. Love Debbie L.

“ Detlev was a lifelong friend. We met back in the day when we were just \u2018kids\u2019 - in our early 30\u2019 s (our backyards faced a common laneway) - and we\u2019ve been friends every since. There are so many memories of our times together over these four decades. The summers at the cottage, the dinners, birthday celebrations, card games, concerts, we could go on ... simply a part of our lives. Detlev, Charlene, John and I saw each others' children grow up, leave home, get married and have children of their own. We were there for each other through all the good times and the not so good as well. At this time of our lives, we were able to get together more often but even so it was not enough. How many times did we ring in the New Year together? It\u2019ll never be the same. Detlev this was too soon. We are going to miss you and our friendship forever. Janice and John

“ I'll never forget Detlev. I'll miss our cups of coffee and long chinwags when he took a break while working on my house. He was a perfectionist and always gave me good advice and came running when I had an emergency at the house. So proud to be able to call him my friend. I'll miss you Fuellbeck!

“ Will miss you Det. Who will record our Bluebird videos now, cream everyone playing Blokus and paint my balcony which was going to be on my list this summer. Thank you for all your help over the years looking after my house. Fond memories! Fly with the Angels.
