“ Maryrose,family and friends my deepest condolences. Ed was one of a kind. Would say whatever was on his mind Always happy go lucky, do whatever he could for anybody. Never forget the time we took the wheels off his vehicle (Maryrose\u2019s) as a prank when he was in a hockey tournament one weekend. Keep cheering those Leafs on! RIP

“ R.I.P. Cousin Eddy...You will be missed big guy. I will remember you for your distinctive laugh, your weird sense of humor, your love of hockey, and the the times you would take me to go find a good used lawn mower or to the white house. Good times. I love you man and will remember you always. GO LEAFS GO!
