“ As a school friend of Angel's, it was impossible to call Mrs. Cousineau, "Eileen"; to me, she remained Mrs. Cousineau. We first met at McDonald's, much like a number of others who have written a message here. Everyone's shift at McDonald's was a better, happier and more organized place when "Mrs. Cousineau" was working. She was "mom" to us all, took us under her wing, showed us the ropes and helped to comfort any number of us, when things weren't going well. Such a lovely lady, kind and patient, so much so, I often wished my mother could be more relaxed, patient and happy like her. My thoughts and prayers are for the entire and extended Cousineau family. Losing a wonderfully loving woman, whom the community looked up to, is such a heartbreaking experience. Tears will fall of course, many tears, as the memories come flooding to your mind. Treasure them all, hold them close and never forget this delightful heaven sent angel, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and true friend that she was. God bless you Mrs. Cousineau and may your journey to the loving arms of all who have passed before you be swift and peaceful. Rest now, your paradise awaits. Izzy Harman

“ My heart goes out to Eileen's family. It seems like a lifetime ago that we worked together at McDonald's in Peterborough, back when Ron Campbell ran the business and it was a fun place to be employed. Eileen had a great laugh and an even bigger heart. Rest well, Eileen. You were a very good person!Tom Philp

“ To the Entire Cousineau Family, Oh, our sweet, fun and wonderful Mrs. Cousineau. We had so many wonderful memories working at McDonald's. She would light up every shift and made sure we had a few laughs along the way. Even though I have not seen her for a long time, she sure left all of us with so many wonderful, fun memories. My heart goes out to you all. She was a special person who always made sure we were ok and loved to have fun yet put us in our place when necessary. She was our mother figure and looked after us all. What a lady! She will be so very missed. Condolences to you all! Angel: M.C you and I will have to reconnect, it's been awhile & I miss you. Your Friend Always, Diane (McDougall) Couturier
