“ One of my favorite memories with Gail is listening to music at my house and she told me her favorite song is "One moment in time" by Dana Winner. We shared music, our hearts and I loved when she came to church with me, even if she slept through half of it. I miss you bud xxoo

“ Gail and I became friends over the last year and a half. We had I.V.s together, ate, shopped and danced. We were close. I painted her a cardinal for Christmas. "Gonna miss you bud! At least we danced."
