

George Kellar

August 2, 1967 - January 24, 2025

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

LG

“ George was a great guy, always had a cheery word to say to everyone he knew. Or didn\u2019t know. He will be greatly missed by his loving family and many , many ,good friends. He put up a good fight for all of us, but the odds were too high this round for him. Rest in peace now George \u2026 until we see each other again\u2026 loved you\u2026 Mr &Mrs G .. xo \ud83d\udd18

Lynda Gibson - February 08, 2025 at 06:45 PM

CS

“ Our deepest sympathies to the Kellar family. We were neighbors on Scollard Dr. and we have many fond memories of George and the family. George was always thoughtful and caring and was always chatting up a storm. As he was outside a lot, it was inevitable to bump into him while walking the dog or taking out the garbage. Usually 20-30 minutes later we were back on our way. This was a testament to the great conversations we had. We will miss his stories, laughter and optimism. The Strand family.

chris strand - February 01, 2025 at 05:02 PM

RC

“ Aunt Sue and family, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Please know that my heart aches for you and your family during this unimaginable time of grief \ud83d\udc99\ud83d\udd4f pray that as times passes, you will find peace in the beautiful memories you created together as a family. George will live on in your hearts. \u2764\ufe0f

Robert and Nancy Cyzmer - January 28, 2025 at 10:47 AM

TG

“ You will be missed Buddy... ”

Todd Gibson - January 27, 2025 at 07:08 PM

SB

“ George will be missed. His memory will always remain in our hearts. Our deepest condolences. His spirit will have the company of love ones on earth and in heaven. Love from Bob and Shelley Davis and family ”

Shelley and Bob - January 27, 2025 at 06:24 PM