

H. Ross MacMillan

April 14, 1929 - December 19, 2025

H. Ross MacMillan, 96, of Peterborough, Ontario passed December 19, 2025, at the Peterborough Regional Health Centre. He was born in the town of Mount Royal, Quebec, to Robert and Lillian MacMillan and predeceased by his devoted brothers Robert T. and A. David MacMillan. Ross was the beloved husband of the late Irma (née Smieszko) of 41 years, loving father of Gregory (Anne), Sandra, and Robert (Teresa), grandfather of Robert J. (Kate), Laura (Scott), Matthew (Olivia), Michael, Abigail, Olivia, and great-grandfather of Malcolm. Ross was also a dear friend of the late Barbara Morrison, and her son Andy and wife Marion.

Ross attended Mount Royal High School prior to moving to Toronto where he graduated from Humber College and attended the University of Toronto and Central Tech. Ross was a member of The Chemical Profession of Ontario, having worked at Connaught Laboratory, followed by 39 years with Falconbridge Nickel Mines, Richmond Hill and Lakefield Research as a Platinum Metals Chemist, while living in Peterborough.

Ross was an avid hockey, baseball and tennis player. He was a member of both the York County and Peterborough Oldtimers hockey leagues, retiring at 80, as well as a member of North York Tennis Club and Quaker Oats Tennis Club, Peterborough.

If desired, donations may be made to the Peterborough Regional Health Centre.

“ Our condolences to Sandy, Robert, Greg and all the family. We will dearly miss Ross. We enjoyed his company and sense of humour and our many lunches together at The Ale House. He was a proper gentleman and a caring man. Andy & Marion Morrison
