

Jill Brown (nee Bavington)

March 14, 1960 - June 29, 2021

JILL BROWN (nee BAVINGTON) of Toronto & Peterborough

Passed away peacefully with her family by her side at Peterborough Regional Health Centre in her 61st year.

Loving daughter of the late Ethel (Skip) and George (Babe) Bavington. Cherished mother to Elizabeth King, Robert King, and William Brown. Jill will be remembered fondly by family Irene and Ron Brown, and Grand-kitties Cinders and Emmy. She will be missed by her many friends.

In lieu of flowers Jill's family would appreciate donations to the Peterborough Regional Health Centre Palliative Care Unit. The family would also like to extend a special thank you to the doctors and nurses on D2.

“ My sincere and most heartfelt sympathy goes out to Elizabeth, Robert and William. Your Mom was a very strong and courageous woman. She was a very social person, always loved meeting new people, I am going to miss my dear friend of 40 yrs, we shared happy, sad and rough times, and we were always there for each other, every day I wake up and have a hard time wrapping my mind around that she is gone and far too young, my long and loving true friend RIP Girl Love and miss you so And as I mentioned before her pride and joy were her three children, she loved you three so much

“ If I were to sum up Jill in one word, I would use the word mother. Her children were her pride, her joy, her purpose. They were her friends, too and it was my joy in befriending her + Elizabeth, Robert and William that when you have one, you had the whole family. Jill will live on in the lives of her children, and that is a comfort for all who will miss her. All my love to Elizabeth, Robert and William who lost a true champion in their daily lives.
