“ So very sad to hear of Linda\u2019s passing. I worked with Linda side by side for a few years. She certainly enjoyed her job and took great pride in her work. She taught me lots. I could never work that line like Linda did. Her and Judy rocked that line. I hope they are having a toddie and a giggle now. My husband and I both worked with Linda. She was a great co worker. Our sincere condolences to her family. Sally and Hugh Riley

“ It is with the deepest sadness at this time I am trying to love and support my husband Bill and my father inlaw Del...Linda was a great mother and she and Bill were close and Linda and Del had alot of years together and loved each other so much...Linda had a great sense of humor and we had some great chuckles at my expense...to hear her laugh and see her eyes light up and look at me and start laughing again and I said it wasn't that funny and she said yes it was and laugh even more...she was a wonderful mother...wife...friend ...grandma to three grandsons and four great grandchildren...seven neices...and numerous friends...a loving caring sister to Doris....she worked hard her entire life...she cared about people...she asked for very little and expected even less....to know her was to love her....for all who knew her know this to be true....too loose her so unexpectedly and suddenly is truly heartbreaking...she put others before herself even when she lost her youngest son Albert every mother's worse nightmare...She has two daughters that had a great mother to look up to and set an example to live up to and have learned from I truly hope they know this...Linda wasn't my mom she was my mother inlaw and I had the privilege for her to be a part of my life for the last fourteen years and I thanked her for raising such a great son loving and caring and with such a huge heart like his mom....she had many talents knitting crocheting...taking care of her flowers and taking care of others and such a great cook and she made the absolute best coconut cream pie..THE BEST no more will we taste any of that..her name was Linda but I called her mama Marie ...for those that knew and loved her she will remain in each of our hearts...and she will be forever loved and remembered...love you mama Marie
