“ Sorry to hear about Linda. I used to work with her at Wood Gundy. One of my favourite memories was when she would host Trivial Pursuit parties. I was lucky to be her partner as she knew a lot about a lot!

“ Linda and I first crossed paths in 1974 at McLeod Young Weir. While at differing timelines, we further intersected at both Wood Gundy and finally Scotiabank. We remained in touch during the intervening periods and indeed well into our respective retirements. I can't think of anyone more knowledgeable in all facets of securities operations and Linda's expertise was sought out by many Financial Institutions. She was also well read and was always an enthusiastic participant in our conversations on just about any topic. To Louise, Shona, David, Tracy, Quinn and Jonelle (the latter two of whom she was most proud), I offer my most sincere condolences. To my good friend Linda, save journey.
