“ There is no one in this world like Malvina. I know how much time you two spent together. You were virtually inseparable. May all your wonderful memories comfort you during this heartbreaking time. She was a special person, and she will always be with us from all the good times and Disney magic to all the frustrating and stubborn moments. I'm so happy I got to experience Disney with her and see the magic and joy it brought us all, and all those dinners together and delicious food she would prepare. Malvina will be missed but always remembered.
