“ Taken too soon. Megan was welcomed into our family just over a year ago, and we embraced her completely and lovingly. She was easy to love - always kind, gently spoken and loving. After Hunter was born Dan, Romy and I really got to know and love her as a devoted, calm, amazing mother. We loved our precious time spending every second weekend with Hunter and her. That time became a highlight in my life. Meg and Hunter fill a very special space in my heart and life - and will forever. I will miss Megan profoundly.
