“ I was So saddened to hear of Norm's passing. My sincere condolence to Pam, the girls and family. Norm was the first person I met when I started work at Ontario Hydro. He always was there as a friend. He was one of a kind having a gentle soul and only good intentions always. He will be sorely missed by many. Rest in Peace.

“ My condolences to Norm's family and friends. I worked with Norm for several years and, car pooled for two or three of those years. Norm was one of a kind ,witty,humourus with spontaneous answers. Norm was a very funny guy and it was sometimes said that he spoke a different language referred to as "NORMANESE" Norm was true family man and also a very talented artist. A pleasure to have worked with an all round SOLID man.

“ My sincerest condolences to Pam, their children and families; to my cousins Jim, Diane, Vivian, June and Pat. Norm's passing is heartbreaking. I don't have any stories to share, as it has been years since I had seen Norm. Keep your memories - the happy ones, the funny ones - the ones that only Norm could provide; those are your stories to share. In Sympathy, Roberta Treen

“ It’s with a sad heart that we have Lost Normie. Our deepest sympathy to Pam, the Girls, and all the Family. Brock and I have been blessed to have Normie in our lives for over 40 years now. His sense of humor was legendary. Personally I will miss his constant teasing, he just loved to tease me, which he did lovingly. The laughter he has provided to so many was a gift. Norm was always there when you needed anything. I will miss you Normie and that sneaky little laugh. Deb Norm was a funny caring and generous individual. When ever he stopped for a visit he would bring coffee and desserts. He was a member of our breakfast club and many times he would have us chuckling. Norm could really make me laugh especially over some observation he'd make about life. His company and humor will be missed at our Table. He loved to fish, was amazing at casting, he could hit a particular lily pad from a good distance. When he and Pam were at the lake, in the early morning I would walk over and he would be sitting with a coffee looking out over the lake. We wouldn't talk much just sat and watch. His love of nature was deep and reflected in his art. His art work reflected his logical observations of life. It will be a lasting impression of his talent. When I was sick he would drive me back and forth from the hospital. One day he was stopping at Cosco and asked if I needed anything. I told him a dozen eggs and a croissant. He came out with a whole flat of eggs and two dozen croissants. I asked what he thought I would do with them, in typical Norm fashion he answered "eat them what do you think". Miss you bud, Brock.

“ Shocked and saddened by the news of our friendly cottage neighbour Norm. From our first meeting, he made sure to tell us that he wasn't a grumpy old man. He just wanted to live life and let others live theirs. He made us laugh with his stories, watched out for the kids in the neighbourhood and seemed to always have a slice of cake to offer! My kids will miss their chats with Norm on the deck as we all will. What a gentle soul. Our deepest sympathies go out to beloved Pam, his children and grandchildren. Like all who knew him, we celebrate your memories with you. God bless you Norm. RIP.

“ I had the pleasure of working closely with Normy for many years, very shocking and unfortunate news of his passing. Normy was a fun and entertaining co-worker, he was extremely generous and caring....someone everyone enjoyed to be around. You always knew he was in the room!! His family of whom he talked about mostly and was very proud of, came first. If not for a life long career in public service, I'm quite sure he would have fulfilled his desire to have been an artist of some sort as he enjoyed and was quite talented at drawing, painting and acting. He will be very deeply missed by many. Rest well Norm "The Dude" Treen.

“ Our sincere and loving condolences to Norm\u2019s wife Pam and his family. It was shocking news to hear of Norm\u2019s passing. I first met Norm years ago, we actually met in the laundry house at Pioneer Park we struck up a conversation that lasted for hours but it made laundry day so much fun, then I was introduced to Norm\u2019s lovely wife Pam and their children and we made an instant connection. So many wonderful memories and conversations while floating in the water, we solved many world issues, talked about our husbands, exchanged recipes, shared nibbles and just enjoyed each other. I so looked forward for summer to come to get back to my friends. Norm would always greet me with a huge hug and a funny joke and then our summer would begin, a memory I will cherish for my lifetime. Our hearts go out to Pam and her family at this time, we send lots of love and to let her know we are thinking of her at this sad and difficult time Kim and Manny Cabral

“ I first want to offer my most heartfelt and deepest condolences to all of you. Like so many I was shocked and so saddened to read the news about Norm's passing. I have known Norm from when we were kids growing up in Whitby and he was the nicest fella back then. The last time I saw Norm was back in 1998 when we ran into him at Sunnybrook Hospital the day my Dad died so it was so nice when Norm started up on facebook to re-connect with him. I loved reading his posts about how much he loved his family and enjoyed so much kidding him about his fishing. My brother Pat is also very saddened as he and Norm hung out a lot when they were kids. Everyone loved Norm. I'm sure I will come up with some more memories to share but a little lost for words at the moment. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers as you navigate through this very difficult and sad time. Debbie Bremner
