

Patrick Burns

August 7, 1943 - August 30, 2023

Burns, Patrick (Paddy, Pat) passed away peacefully at Campbellford Memorial Hospital on August 30th, 2023 in his 80th year.

Beloved husband of the late Kathleen (Kathy) Burns. He will be dearly missed by his children Kaleen Torbiak (Marc), Michael Burns, Kaitee Yeomans (Mike) and the late Patrick Burns. Patrick was a dedicated grandfather to his grandchildren Rylee Crough, Morgan and Brooklyn Yeomans.

Patrick was a hard working man who would do anything for anyone. He had a heart of gold, and changed the lives for many. He volunteered his time coaching hockey teams and flooding the outdoor rink at the Knights of Columbus park for 20 plus years.

Patrick will be missed dearly by his children, grandchildren, family and friends.

There will be no official service as per his wishes, the family will be having celebration of life (Irish Wake) at a later date.

Tribute Wall

AF

“ So sorry to hear of Paddy's passing. I met him years ago through my husband (who worked with Paddy at Fleetwood). John always spoke highly of Paddy and after I met him I understood why. So sorry for your loss, keep memories of him close. Anna & John Ferguson

Anna Ferguson - September 08, 2023 at 09:31 AM

MA

“ to let you know we are sending our prayers to you all. Pat was always smiling and one of the nicest people I was proud to work with. He fought a great battle and can now rest in peace. Hugs to you all. Maddy and Roy Asselstine

magdalena asselstine - September 06, 2023 at 06:54 PM

RB

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Thank you for the childhood memories Uncle Patsy. Rest In Peace. Roy Burns.

Roy Burns - September 06, 2023 at 10:14 AM