“ Our sincere sympathies and condolences to Sheila and family as together we mourn in the loss of Ralph. We have known and been blessed to call Ralph our friend for over 40 years. We will always remember his great sense of humor, his many talents as a musician and wood crafting artisan. We came to know Ralph initially through our common faith in Jesus Christ and have encouraged each other in the gospel ever since. May we each lean on our faith in Christ to receive the comfort that the gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ offers each of us. Looking forward to when we can join with you in Ralphs' Celebration of Life memorial service. Lovingly yours,Don & Liz Rider & Evelyn Thompson

“ Mom, so sorry for your loss and for the laborious task you\u2019ve had for a long time. It does give a sense of relief though now for you so you can grieve. I know you have truly done your best for RALPHY and he knows it too. Think of the relief he must feel now to be free from his pain and strain. Please know you are forever in my thoughts and prayers and can call me anytime you feel like talking. My adult children are saddened by Ralph\u2019s passing and loved him. We all loved him. So wish once again to be there in person and to hold you and comfort you. Prayers always. Love ROB
