I would personally like to thank Dr. Lauren Morelli of Hospice Peterborough and her nursing team, the nursing team of the LHIN (CBI and SE Health) for their care at home over the past year, and the extra special care provided by the D2 Palliative Care Unit at Peterborough Regional Health Center for the final twelve days of Susan's life and especially to RN Jill for ensuring her passing was peaceful and comfortable. You're truly worth your weight in diamonds, Jill! I would also like to thank one of our favourite Priests, Father

Damian Smullen, for administering the Sacrament of the Sick while Susan was still alert and appreciative and made Susan ready to meet her God, and her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

In lieu of flowers donations to Hospice Peterborough or the D2 Palliative Care Unit at Peterborough Regional Health Center would be greatly appreciated. Messages of condolence may be left at: ashburnhamfuneralhome.ca
