

Tarynn Cielee Coleen Lloyd

April 28, 1985 - April 25, 2026

Our hearts are shattered by the loss of our beloved Tarynn who passed away suddenly April 26th. She was a free spirit filled with love and compassion for those she knew. Tarynn will be deeply missed and was deeply loved by her mother, Cathy (Cate) Buxton, her father Joseph Davies, her brothers Zach, Virgil and Nicholas, her partner Chris, her Aunt Heather (Ray), uncle Mike (Kelli), cousins, friends and extended family members.

Fly high baby girl, you're FREE ! ♥

A future celebration of life will be held.

“ T, you were the absolute best of us, even though you never believed that. The world is a little less colorful and a lot sadder without you in it. Everyone who was blessed to know you is better for having had you in their lives. I know you are singing with the angels now, fly high my friend. You are so very missed. We love you so very much.

“ Dearest Tickle,
*Into paradise may the angels lead you.
I hope you're singing with Resin in the angel's choir. I don't believe you knew how beautiful a soul you were nor how deeply loved you were. You always will be. May your family, friends and Chris find some sliver of solace knowing how many lives you did touch and how powerful and beautiful your voice was in this world. You lit up every room you ever entered on StarMaker.
Ad astra.*

“ I was so sad to see this news. Tarynn, you were such an amazing friend to all those that knew you. You always had such an infectious smile and laugh. You excepted me with open arms and I never felt that needed to be different around you. You were a friend to me when I didn't have many, I will always be thankful for that. There is a hole in my heart now. I'll miss you darlin. Fly high with those multi coloured wings of yours!! Be free my friend.

“ My dear, Cate! I only knew Tarynn well through your stories and our chats. What I find to be an absolute blessing and miracle, are these wonderful memories that are coming from the hearts of the people that were fortunate enough to have Tarynn in their orbit. Their words and tributes of how Tarynn was in their lives, will last forever for you. Always a beautiful reminder of what a great human being you raised and how Tarynn impacted many people. My heart is with you and Zach!

“ Awe big sis my heart is broken. You shaped me into the person I am today. You taught me how to survive in this crazy mixed up world. You showed me compassion and love when I needed it the most. As a young teen on my own you took me by the hand and walked with me and showed me things no one else would. You took a chance on me at the age of sixteen and you only 20. Got me a job and had me move to Toronto where we were room mates for sometime. The things you did for me I will never forget. You helped raise me, cared for me and looked out for me. If it wasn't for you I wouldn't have made it as far as I have today. Your kindness and love will always be remembered. You will be missed. Xoxo say hi to jess for me. Fly high and sing with the angels.

No matter how long it's been or how far away we are you will always be my big sister. Ps I think of you often

Jessie Sholer - May 07 at 02:04 PM

“ I have no words to describe the sadness I share with so many of you over the loss of my little sister. Tarynn was not just my sister, she was my biggest fan and supporter. I can't even think of a single disagreement we ever had and neither backdown from a good argument lol. I still remember the day I was pulled out of school and taken to the hospital to hold her in my arm. It was and will always remain one of the most important days of my life. I tried so hard to be the best big brother I could. I will miss her terribly and try to always think of her at her best. As we all move forward with our lives we can be rest assured that Tarynn is finally at peace, she will no longer feel pain or sadness, only joy and love. I know in my heart that when my time comes Tarynn and Jess will be waiting with big smiles and bigger hugs. I will miss Tarynn with every breath I take. You deserved so much more than this world gave you my beautiful little girl.

Thank you to all the wonderful souls who have loved my sister and treated her well. It is so heartwarming to read all of your stories.

To anyone reading this that is suffering from mental health and or addiction, please consider asking for help. Please make that first step, it may be the hardest thing you ever do but it just may be the most important. Even if you don't know me personally I will always be here to listen and support you and those are not just words.

“ I am so sad and heartbroken by this. I can't believe it. This one's hitting really hard for a lot of us. I used to hang out with Taryn after school we used to play on the tire swing listen to music rock out to the cranberries and just be silly in ourselves I'll miss her creativity her smile her outgoingness, and just all those childhood memories . My thoughts and prayers go out to the family until we see each other again my friend you will be missed. ❤️😭

“ Today is the first I have heard of Tarynn's passing , through Facebook from a mutual friend , we were childhood friends , classmates at armour heights , I'm in shock she is so young , and watched her graduate at Fleming college when I graduated I was so proud of what she had accomplished academically. I hope that whatever took her from this life is that she is at peace .

“ I was so shocked and saddened to read this. Taryn was so amazing, such a beautiful person inside and out, such an incredible heart of service and helping others. I met Taryn in 2003-2004 at Fleming College. I have several learning disabilities and had utilized Learning Support Services for assisting me with note taking and tutoring supports. I was blessed to have Taryn as my tutor. She was influential in helping me through my first year of college and had made that overwhelming transition much more easier to manage because of her kindness and welcoming nature. I always looked forward to our sessions, I loved that we had such great conversations and became good friends. As life journey brought us down different roads as it does I was always grateful to still keep in touch through Facebook. I will always cherish how much I enjoyed our time together during those tutoring sessions and all the great chats we had. Rest easy my beautiful friend. 😞❤️👉 thank you for everything. ❤️

“ I am Devin Snider. I was the captain of Taryn it's been hard for me to even say anything much less writing anything. I've known her for almost 4 years and she's would've been one of the most realist people that I've met and I'm gonna miss her terribly and she was just good to me and she didn't have to be and I love her and I'm praying for our family

“ I met Tarynn on the starmaker app 3 years ago. A mutual friend of ours introduced us and from the moment I met her, I loved her. We spent many long nights talking and laughing and sometimes even crying together. I coached her in a competition once..wow absolutely amazing and talented she was. She touched the hearts of so many through her music and her kind hearted nature. I don't think she ever really knew how amazingly beautiful she was although we told her every chance we got. My condolences go out to her family and to Chris, she loved you dearly. Fly high my girl, I'm gonna miss you terribly. Love you always 💖 ~ "HoodzGirl"~

“ I was in my late teens when Tarynn was born and spent a lot of time babysitting. Of course I was instantly in love with this little human and am so blessed to have watched her grow. On one occasion I took her to the park, on the way home she got tired and wanted me to carry her. She would have been 1-2 yrs old. So I picked her up and she began to sing at the top of her lungs. She was loud enough that the people across the road stopped gardening and waved, smiling as we passed. We walked about a block she sang the whole time. Then I put her down, took her hand and continued on our way home. That was the moment I knew music would probably be a big part of her life.
