“ Hi Doug,I am Bill's son Matt. Thank you for your story. I spent a New Years eve at the Chateau Laurier and had an amazing time. I have a friend who works for one of the other Fairmonts so I have travelled to many of them on his discount, but the Chateau Laurier was the first. That was also my first time staying in Ottawa, which ultimately led to me currently living there. I often walk by the Chateau Laurier and even proposed to my fianc\u00e9e with it visible in the background. Thank you for giving me this additional connection to my Father.My Mom showed me pictures of us travelling to Ottawa many times when I was young, so please know that I'm sure Bill fondly remembered your trip as well.Sincerely,Matt

“ My deepest condolences to all of Bills family. Bill and I were best of friends through our early teen years . i have so many lasting memories of Bill . Looking through the pictures , I remember that mile so well . Bill was such an easy going sole . When we were 14 , we went to Ottawa buy his 16 foot boat ; i remember his Dad , Mel , booked us into the Chateau Laurier . When we arrived , being pretty scruffy looking , the desk clerk called Mel to confirm . It was an amazing journey for 2 young guys . In the summer , we regularly camped on the park islands around Gananoque and east of Kingston . In the winter we went by snow mobile to Milton Island and spent the day camping .I cherish these great times . Bill is forever etched in my memory .regards , Doug Shurtliffe (Bill always called me Dudly)

“Heaven has gained another Angel, I am so sorry it had to be so soon but In the short time I knew Bill he always did things his way or no way. I truly believe he is now in a place of pure positive love, he told me many times it was the only thing really believed in. I am truly grateful that I got to know him even if the time was short. It is strange to meet a brother you have never known when you have both lived totally different lives. There wasn\u2019t an instant connection, we disagreed on most things and sometimes argued, but we did come to accept each other as siblings even though we weren\u2019t so close. I think that was a big step for him, and I speak from my heart when I say I will miss his annoying texts lol. Colleen, Cassie and Matt I send you my deepest condolences, may your memories of Bill bring you comfort in this tender time.
